The 15th annual Holiday Bazaart Makers Market will take place on Saturday, November 21, 2026, from 9 AM to 5 PM. Holiday Bazaart is hosted inside the MacKenzie Art Gallery on the second floor in our AGRA Torchinsky Salon and Shumiatcher Sculpture Court.
Each year over 3,000 attendees support independent makers, artists, and craftspeople by purchasing their work. One of the MacKenzie Art Gallery's three major fundraising initiatives, Holiday Bazaart is an opportunity for the Gallery to generate funds for our exhibitions and programming while developing and strengthening the local small business and arts economy. In their applications, all artists are encouraged to demonstrate their technical skill, cultural competency, and both the quality and originality of their products.

RULES AND REGULATIONS:

1. APPLICATIONS
Holiday Bazaart accepts applications from a wide range of established and emerging Canadian artists and craftspeople employing both traditional and experimental art forms. Artists interested in participating in Holiday Bazaart must submit a completed application form by August 31, 2026. All Artisans must electronically submit three high-quality images of work along with the application. The MacKenzie is committed to maintaining a high standard of work at Holiday Bazaart and therefore reserves the right to decline applications.

THIS WILL BE A JURIED SHOW:
Unlike the summer Bazaart, available space is limited for this show. The MacKenzie has established a Jury to carefully assess all participating Artisans. In order to provide a remarkable shopping experience for guests and ensure a successful show for exhibitors, the MacKenzie will strive for a balanced distribution of booths across different artistic mediums.

2. FEES & DEADLINES
Once vendors are notified of acceptance on Monday, September 21, 2026, they will be issued a payment link and will have 7 days to complete the payment. Failure to pay their booth fees within the 7 days will result in their acceptance being voided and the next vendor on the waitlist being accepted in their place.

Regular Booth Fee: $275 for an 10'W x 8'D display area

Double Booth Fee: $400 for a 16'W x 8'D display area

All applications received by the MacKenzie Art Gallery before or on Monday, August 31, 2026, will be juried. Artists will be notified of their acceptance by email on Monday, September 21, 2026.

3. DISPLAY AREA SPACE ALLOTMENT

Artists accepted to participate in Holiday Bazaart are assigned one 10' x 8' display space or a 16' x 8' double booth. A 6 ft. table and 2 chairs are available upon request. Artists are responsible for their display set-up and take-down during the time allotted, and must supply their own display equipment, hanging supplies etc. Artists are encouraged to have a sign clearly showing their name. Once the show is over, artists must be out of the building by 6:30 PM.
It is strongly recommended that artists provide their own lighting if required. Artists will not be permitted to move or refocus lighting within the event space.

4. DISPLAY REQUIREMENTS

Please ensure there are no sharp edges on grid walls, stands and tables. All boxes, equipment, stands, dollies, product, etc. are to be clean and free from debris before entering the MacKenzie Art Gallery. Artists must contact Holiday Bazaart's Organizer if their artwork contains organic materials such as plants, dirt, fur, skin, wool, hair, quills, feathers, food, wood, found objects or materials that have been stored in garages or outdoors. These materials can carry insects which could potentially cause damage not only to the art works within the exhibition spaces but spread to other objects throughout the MacKenzie Art Gallery. The MacKenzie's conservator will be happy to discuss the required procedures around these materials with you.
New wool and commercial feathers are less likely to carry insects, but please contact the Holiday Bazaart Organizer for any of the above materials. Failure to do may result in forfeiture of your Holiday Bazaart space without refund. ***

5. RESPECTFULNESS POLICY

We ask all those applying to participate as a juror, vendor, or volunteer for Holiday Bazaart, to please take a moment to read our Vision, Values, Equity, and Accessibility Statements.
We believe that artists and their engagement with our visitors are essential to the success of the MacKenzie, and the success of Holiday Bazaart as both a fundraiser for our programming and an opportunity for artists to connect with one another and the broader community.
We are so excited to celebrate our successes together and work toward the shared goal of creating a meaningful and engaging event. As such, we recognize the value of every vendor and volunteer who participates in Holiday Bazaart, and we strive to ensure that we provide a respectful and inclusive event with the highest standards of hospitality. We know that as vendors, you share our passion for the arts with creativity and innovation, and that you support our initiatives by always representing yourself and the Mackenzie Art Gallery to the best of our shared abilities.
Accordingly, we have a zero-tolerance stance on racially charged, ableist, transphobic, or other discriminatory statements or incidents, and reserve the right to remove from our events any vendor, volunteer, or participant that exhibits behavior inconsistent with our vision and values, Attendees, vendors, and/or volunteers who insult, harass, or otherwise interfere with staff and other participants (including volunteers and vendors) may be kindly asked to leave the Gallery and surrounding property. People who are asked to leave on these grounds, are not entitled to a refund of their admission or fees associated with Holiday Bazaart.

If you experience or witness any issues, please contact the nearest MacKenzie staff member.

6. REGISTRATION AND SET-UP
Registration and set-up will take place on Friday, November 20, 2026, in nine arrival windows:
9 AM, 9:30AM, 10AM, 10:30AM, 11AM, 11:30AM, 1PM, 1:30PM, 2PM
This scheduling approach will help to alleviate congestion during set-up and ensure smooth access to the second floor via the elevator. The MacKenzie Art Gallery will communicate each exhibitor's assigned set-up time in their acceptance letter. Please note that all booths must be fully set up by 4 PM on Friday, November 20 and remain in place until 5 PM on Saturday, November 21.

Kindly keep in mind that the MacKenzie Art Gallery has a limited number of carts/trolleys available. If possible, we kindly request exhibitors to bring their own trolleys, as this will help reduce wait times.

On the day of the Holiday Bazaart (November 21), booths must be fully set up and staffed by 9 AM. Artists who fail to complete set-up and have staff present by this time will be charged a fee of $100.

7. HOLIDAY BAZAART PROMOTION
The MacKenzie Art Gallery will advertise and promote the event in Regina. The MacKenzie's website will showcase Holiday Bazaart and all confirmed artists. The MacKenzie Art Gallery reserves the right to use images submitted by accepted artists for Holiday Bazaart 2026 as promotional purposes, both in print and online.

8. CANCELLATION
In the event that accepted artists are unable to attend Holiday Bazaart, they are required to submit a written notice of cancellation to the event organizers no later than Monday, October 5, 2026, to receive a refund of their booth fee less a $100 processing charge. Refunds are not available for cancellations made after Monday, October 5, 2026.
